

FISCAL NOTE

HB 296 - SB 1403

February 11, 2007

SUMMARY OF BILL: Restricts a health care provider's right to practice upon the termination from or the conclusion of an employment relationship with an employing entity under certain conditions.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant
Increase State Revenues – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- The proposed legislation would apply to podiatrists, chiropractors, dentists, optometrists, osteopathic physicians, and psychologists.
- The Health Related Boards of these professions would be responsible for the investigations of any complaints that were filed. Any increase in expenditures would be not significant.
- All Health Related Boards, by statute, are self supporting such that revenues equal expenditures.
